The Blind Side

In an interview, Sandra Bullock said that the key to her decision to make The Blind Side was the Touhys' selflessness, explaining that they didn't get involved in Oher's life for any benefits that might come to them. "They did it because their instinct was to give love. Everyone questioned their motives, of course, because we don't trust anyone who does anything nice. But they kept going, so it makes you feel that you need to step up your game. I felt it was an inspirational story that says we are more capable than we think we are, even though we don't really live in a world that supports the good that we can do."
